BLUE CHIP STAMPS

LOS ANGELES LAKER STAR Elgin Baylor, second highest league scorer, will appear at the grand opening of Pacific State Bank's new Torrance branch Oct. 26.

Pumpkin Party Marks Opening Guaranty Bank

A gala "pumpkin party" will mark grand opening festivities at Pacific State Bank's new Torrance office Friday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Beautiful Judith Ann Swanson, the Bank's "Cinderella Girl," will give free pumpkins to all children accompanied by adults, headlining the day-long program. Personal appearances will be made by Mickey Hargitay, KTLA television personality, who will give weight-reducing tips and greet visitors: Elgin Baylor and "Hot Rod" Hundley, stars of the Los Angeles Lakers professional basketball team; and fashion models showing apparel from Lillian's Redondo Beach.

Manager Keith Pischel today issued a personal invitation to all Torrance area residents to visit the new Pacific State Bank office located at 21600 So. Normandie Ave., in the Carson Shopping Center.

Boy Scout Troop Begins New Year

Court of honor ceremonies for Boy Scout Troop 211 recently were held with first class awards presented to Greg Parker, Bill Brown, Rick Golightly, Jerry Jackson and Dean Holmes.

Other awards were presented to Larry Strouse, 3-year pin and 3-year bar; Jerry Strouse, 2-year pin and 2-year bar; Billy Lucero, 2-year pin; Bill Hall, 2-year pin; Greg Parker, 2-year pin and Maltese cross; and Richard Chavez, 2-year pin, Maltese cross and one-year bar.

New positions were assigned to Bill Hall, bugler; Jerry Jackson, quartermaster; Dean Holmes, librarian; and Rick Golightly, scribe. Bill Brown acquired a swimming merit badge.

Lee Parker, new committee chairman, is in charge of the troop and its activities. Movies of Catalina and Indian dances were shown by the scouts. Refreshments were served by mothers.

Division Head To Visit Here

Edgar C. Sonderman, newly appointed director of industrial relations of U.S. Steel's Columbia - Geneva Steel Division, will make his first official visit to the Torrance works Friday.

After his visit to the plant, he will address the members of the United States Steel Management Club, Torrance Works, at the Palms Restaurant, 6:30 p.m.

Leon Perry, supervisor of engineering and utilities, is president of the club.

Workers Hear Candidates Via Phone

Torrance-area employees of Southern California Edison Company are hearing personalized addresses from gubernatorial candidates Edmund G. Brown and Richard M. Nixon — transmitted to them here from Los Angeles via the electric company's own microwave telephone system. L. E. Jenkins, Edison district manager, announced.

Brown and Nixon speak at Edison's Los Angeles general office auditorium, and their remarks are relayed instantaneously to employees and their families assembled at a total of 85 Edison Company installations throughout the Southland, including several local Edison facilities.

Gov. Brown's speech was relayed at 7:30 Monday morning and former Vice President Nixon will speak Wednesday, also between 7:30 and 8 a.m.

Addresses by Nixon and Brown are part of a series of bi-partisan programs in which candidates for various state and regional offices are making presentations at the Edison Building auditorium in Los Angeles.

The series is being conducted by Edison in an effort to stimulate greater interest in the personalities and issues involved in the Nov. 6 election, Jenkins pointed out.

Street Work Plans Told

Plans and specifications for street construction in Tract No. 27096 in the vicinity of 213th and Dolores Sts. were approved by the Board of Supervisors this week.

Action was taken on recommendation of the County Road Department to provide access to 93 home sites in the tract area.

The work will include excavation, grading, pavement, curbs and gutters, utilities.

Man Transfers To Bank Here

Transfer of Harold Kahle, assistant manager, to Security First National Bank's Torrance branch, has been announced.

Prior to the move, he had been assigned to the bank's 190th and Anza branch.

Kahle, who joined Security in 1949, is a native of Crete, Neb. He is a member of the Lions Service Club, Torrance, and is active in the Mt. Calvary Lutheran Church, Beverly Hills. He and his wife, Norma, live in Los Angeles.

Credential Requirement Tests Offered at ECC

Teachers wishing to fulfill the California teaching credential requirement of passing an examination on Constitution of the United States may do so on Friday, Oct. 26, at 4 p.m. in Room 6 of the El Centro.

John H. de la Haye, assistant director of the exam, announced this week.
